
Press Release

Solutions 30 notes recent press coverage in the Alphaville section of the Financial Times regarding the company's financial statements.

Solutions 30 confirms that all of its annual financial statements have been audited. The Company's auditors have issued unqualified (clean) opinions every year.

The Company's original financial statements are prepared in French, and so are the auditor's opinion letters. These are available in the French versions of the annual reports. They can be downloaded from the financial reports section of the Solutions 30 website: www.solutions30.com.

Any translations of financial statements or related documents are -as customary- solely for the convenience of English speaking users.
